

Glasgow & Edinburgh

Monday 27 April -
Friday 01 May 2026

THE BURRELL COLLECTION

Awarded Art Fund Museum of The Year 2023, it contains medieval stained glass and suits of armour, Flemish tapestries, oriental jades, Degas pastels, a Ming Dynasty table and chair and paintings from the 15th to 20th centuries.

HOUSE FOR AN ART LOVER

This extraordinary building was designed by Mackintosh in 1900 and completed in 1996. Visitors may view the magnificent exhibition rooms, including the Music Room with its elaborately carved piano and spectacular lighting (please note that this visit is subject to availability).

DUMFRIES HOUSE

The Palladian mansion was constructed in the mid 1700s to designs by the brothers, John, Robert and James Adam and is today renowned for its unique collection of 18th century rococo furniture.

DRUMLANRIG CASTLE

Built more than 300 years ago by William Douglas, 1st Duke of Queensberry, it is one of the finest examples of late 17th century Renaissance architecture and houses one of Scotland's finest private art collections.

ARDGOWAN HOUSE

The private house was built in the late 18th century and was used as a military hospital during both world wars. The walls are hung with art collected on Grand Tours and the surrounding landscape was designed by James Ramsay, said to be the Scottish equivalent of Capability Brown.

THE ROYAL YACHT BRITANNIA

The former royal yacht of the British monarchy that was in service from 1954-1997. The yacht travelled more than a million nautical miles around the globe, and today she is permanently berthed at the Ocean Terminal.

PALACE OF HOLYROOD HOUSE

The King's official residence in Scotland, this baroque palace is closely associated with Scotland's turbulent past and was the home of Mary, Queen of Scots. Also located within the palace is The King's Gallery, which hosts a programme of changing exhibitions from the Royal Collection.

THE TENEMENT HOUSE (NTS)

The 1892 tenement building contains four meticulously restored rooms that offer an insight into early 20th century Glasgow life.
